

We believe that nature's seasons bring focus to the natural, and no matter what the season, that Pincus Matz is the natural choice for our clients.

No matter the weather ...

When colours fade and leaves start to fall the team at Pincus Matz is here to brighten your day with the best solutions to your unique legal needs. This season, we wish to remind you that estate planning requires ongoing consideration and that we are here to advise you when changes need to be made – for whatever reason. We are: SERIOUS ABOUT LAW AND PASSIONATE ABOUT PEOPLE!

We welcome two new Articled Clerks to the team

KIRSTEN PEARCE

I always saw myself becoming an attorney and thoroughly enjoyed my many years as a student, completing two bachelors and two Masters degrees. As a student I spent much of my time working and travelling, exploring parts of South America, Europe and Asia. I love spending time with my family and friends enjoying good food, wine and music. I also enjoy contact sport including rugby and mixed martial arts. I do, in the future wish to explore more of South Africa and Africa in general.

Martine Murphy

MARTINE MURPHY

My interest for law started at quite an early age when I was first introduced to the profession while watching old favourites such as L.A. Law and Reasonable Doubts. I was enthralled with the idea of being in court, representing the down-trodden and putting the 'bad guys' away. All of which still draws me to the law. However, after studying, travelling overseas and working in the NGO/NPO sector, I am now able to appreciate law for what it really is without all the added Hollywood frills. I am passionate about people being treated equally and justly and feel that law is one of the most valuable tools in achieving this. In my spare time I enjoy spending time with my family, reading, taking part in outdoor activities which my son absolutely loves as he is an extremely busy toddler, and running with my running club, Spartan Harriers.

Still the greatest little birthday club in town

Our birthday club is still one of the most favourite items in our diaries. From the feedback we get, we know that you enjoy them too! Earlier this year, we hosted a breakfast at Bistro Sixteen82 at Steenberg, and another one more recently, at The Cellars-Hohenort. To see more photos, visit us on Facebook.

We have a winner!

Staff lunches

Once again we are enjoying the themed lunches that our staff take turns to organise, and hold in our boardroom. In March we had a beach theme and in April we were treated to an Easter theme. It is a special time for the Pincus Matz family to connect and chat in a relaxed environment. See Facebook for more pics.

Slipper Day

It was slippers to work for a day – all in support of Reach for a Dream Foundation's Slipper Day.

Celebrating 71 years

A special cake for Les Masterson who recently celebrated his 71st birthday!

Very best Autumn birthday wishes

We say happy birthday to Yasmin Jadwat, Alison Tooley, Melanie Wilson, Laverne Nolan and Les Masterson. We wish you many happy returns and all the very best.

Snippets

It has been a long journey, with many ups and downs. We are extremely happy with the way in which we have conducted business with you, and will certainly recommend you, and the services you provide, to all those who need it. Matthew Renaud

Thank you for a delightful breakfast and good company. It was much enjoyed. We feel very privileged to be Pincus Matz clients. Marian and John Arenhold

We are most grateful to Pincus Matz Attorneys for your support. We remain deeply touched and motivated by the empathy and concern you have shown towards the children in our care. Your donation has helped to continue to get and keep children off the streets, and to help save the most deprived and vulnerable children of Cape Town from a life of abuse, exploitation and neglect.
