THE ART OF CONNECTING

Pincus Matz turns 95 this year! As we celebrate this milestone, we look at the two vital connections that have shaped our firm: Law and People.

From keeping informed about latest legal developments to meticulously dotting the ‘i’s’ and crossing the ‘t’s’ on contracts, Pincus Matz takes the law very seriously. This ensures that every connection we make — be it pen to paper, keyboard to printer or face to face — motivates us to deliver ethical, legal solutions.

We are inspired by you, our clients, our colleagues, our team at the office. Connecting with people is our joy, our passion, and this motivates us to do better, in line with the Pincus Matz Vision, which is to be your first choice because of our high standards, fair pricing and our respect for people.

THE ART OF CONNECTING THE LAW WITH PEOPLE because Pincus Matz is serious about law and passionate about people.

“Every dot we face on life’s journey — be it a person, an incident or even a decision — eventually connects with the other dots and ultimately reveals the meaning of life, like a beautiful tapestry.” UNKNOWN

BEST WISHES

Our very best wishes go to Matina Angeliniadis as she takes on her new role as Consultant to Pincus Matz as of 1 March. Matina joined the firm in 2000 as an attorney, conveyancer and notary. She has served as a partner in the firm since 2006 and as a Managing Partner for 10 years. Matina spearheaded the marketing and client services department, giving Pincus Matz a point of difference in the profession.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations go to Nina Devlin who was admitted as an attorney and conveyancer on Friday, 1 March 2024. Nina’s designation changes from Candidate Attorney to Professional Assistant at Pincus Matz Attorneys. May your time with the firm serve both you and our clients well.

WE WELCOME OUR NEW CANDIDATE ATTORNEYS

NICHOLAS DE NOBREGA

I found my interest in law when I stepped away from the accounting path I had begun at varsity. Looking for a new and exciting challenge, I took a few law classes. I was thoroughly inspired by my lecturers and the genuine impact that they had made on the lives of South Africans. Since then, it has been my dream to step into a courtroom and contribute in the legal field. This dream is now one I am fulfilling at Pincus Matz. Outside of work you may catch me enjoying delicious foods and subsequently burning my overindulgence through a variety of sports.

MALIKAH WILLIAMS

I enjoy many simple things in life; going for a jog along the coast, a Cape Town summer sunset, the beach, my cat, and fiction novels. The idea to study law drew my interest at the young age of 16. During my studies, that interest developed into a passion. I have always had the desire to help people and change their lives for the better, even if just a little, and studying law fits well into that life-philosophy. I hope to blossom into the legal practitioner that 16-year-old Malikah dreamed of, and so much more.

FRANKLIN KING

I grew up in Cape Town, and decided to study law as I believe that it offers a diverse spectrum of opportunities. During my studies I developed a keen interest in property and related topics, and I am glad to be placed in the Property Department at Pincus Matz. I believe that it is important to work hard, but also to live a balanced life and have other interests. My hobbies include hiking and working out, as a healthy body equals a healthy mind, which is one of my most valuable assets as an aspiring lawyer.

MAKING NEW CONNECTIONS

We bid a fond farewell to our two Candidate Attorneys Robynne Landore and Tershia Segers who left the firm at the end of February. We wish them both everything of the very best on their new ventures.

“You can’t connect the dots looking forward; you can only connect them looking backwards. So you have to trust that the dots will somehow connect in your future.”

CELEBRATING LOVE

Valentine’s Day is always a good reason for us to dress in theme and to celebrate the occasion with some treats, something we LOVE to do at Pincus Matz.

I AM PART OF THE BIGGER PICTURE

The Pincus Matz Staff Appreciation Programme 2024 reminds us that everyone has an important role to play in achieving successful outcomes.

We are all part of the bigger picture and understand that being successful demands a high standard of work ethic and efforts which we measure against the Pincus Matz values and culture: to act with integrity, to build and nurture relationships, and to care and be fair.

Well done to Janet Mc Intosh and Rachenda Smith for taking the award in February.

CONNECTING AT STAFF LUNCHES

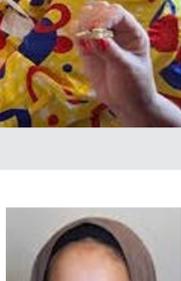

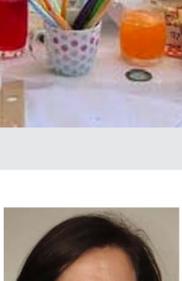

The theme for our first Staff Lunch in 2024 was “Ready Steady Go” and referenced a new road for outgoing and ingoing staff members, in particular our Candidate Attorneys. It reminded us that no matter what path we are on, whether in work, or life in general, the dots will align and will create a meaningful, greater picture.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

We have already celebrated three birthdays this year — Virginia Stirk (Litigation) on 10 January, Robynne Landore (Estates) on 16 February and Malikah Williams (Litigation) on 28 February. We wish them health and happiness for the years ahead.
