

Going to make a difference?

The women of Pincus Matz wish everyone a Happy Women's month. May we all go to great places and be the change we want to see.

At this time of year we remember the brave women who fought boldly for women's rights. We value the difference that they made 62 years ago!

The women at Pincus Matz are diverse in many ways; culturally, religiously, ethnically, in age and background, yet they are all valued for the unique roles that they play in making Pincus Matz the firm it is today. This is indeed a team of hard-working women, who rise to the challenge of running their homes, raising children and developing their careers, while balancing the needs of all around them on a daily basis.

The cogs of the Pincus Matz wheel would not turn smoothly without Abaseyah Bassedien and Veronica Moses, who go about their daily tasks, unassumingly, behind the scenes. Both of them are examples to other staff members of living life with a positive attitude, with faith and tenacity.

Meet Abaseyah - affectionately known as Abby

Abby is the firm's messenger and filing clerk but she is more than that. She establishes a rapport and maintains good relations with other role players. She represents Pincus Matz with passion and integrity to all those she encounters. Abby has been with the firm for 15 years, and was thanked at the staff lunch for performing her tasks with dedication and wisdom. "A woman must be proud of being a woman. We bear a lot and take on many responsibilities. I like to encourage others to be strong no matter what the circumstances." says Abby.

Meet Veronica - affectionately known as Ronny

Ronny takes charge of house-keeping at Pincus Matz, and takes on the role of hostess when she graciously greets clients with a warm smile and a refreshing drink. Her positive and friendly attitude is infectious. She has been with the firm for two years and says, "I like the fairness and straight-forward ways at Pincus Matz, and believe that my attitude is important, and that I can, and do make a difference."

Going to Celebrate

Catharina's Restaurant at Steenberg Estate is a firm favourite for our 'The Greatest Little Birthday Club in Town' breakfast celebrations, where we recently enjoyed a delightful meal and great company. You will find more photos on our Facebook page.

Pincus Matz staff lunches are going to exciting places

Pincus Matz staff lunches are going places! From a wonderful experience in Rome (relating to Roman-Dutch Law) organised by Boebie and Vanessa, to the Going Home theme by Rachenda and Mari, and more recently, Going to Nuha's birthday party put together by Melissa and Nuha, every lunch has been in line with our 2018 theme of Going Places. Every month two staff members have the chance to work together to host the rest of the Pincus Matz family. We have been most impressed by the effort that goes into these occasions: from the theme to the invitation, to the decor and the cuisine. Because we are passionate about people, we enjoy this opportunity to relax in each others company, share a meal and some personal news, before we go back to our desks and get serious about law! For more photos, please visit our Facebook page.

No nation can rise to the height of glory unless your women are side by side with you.
Muhammad Ali Jinnah

Congratulations

This year is indeed a year to celebrate for Rachenda Smith. Not only has she been with Pincus Matz for twenty years this year, but it is also the year in which she has turned the golden age of fifty. Rachenda treated the Pincus Matz family to a delicious lunch in celebration of her special birthday. Thank you Rachenda. We wish you all the very best – both in your work life and in your personal achievements.

Our best wishes go to Laverne Nolan, Les Masterson, Rachenda Smith, Vanessa Joshua, Abubaker (Boebie) Hendricks, Martine Murphy and Abby Bassadien who have all recently celebrated their birthdays. May the years ahead be kind to you all.

Email Snippets

Thank you so much for the lovely breakfast. It was really lovely and so nice to get to chat with all of you and meet some of the interesting people that are valuable to Pincus.
Nicole Coppin

Many thanks to you all for such a splendid breakfast – and at such a beautiful restaurant!
Jeremy Lawrence

Thanks so much for a wonderful birthday breakfast - this really has become a tradition and it is very special for me to be part of it! Catharina's Restaurant is the most beautiful venue and the meal was delicious. Lovely to catch up with you all again.
Angela Gilbert

