OCTOBER 2025

FROM CELEBRATION TO COMMUNITY

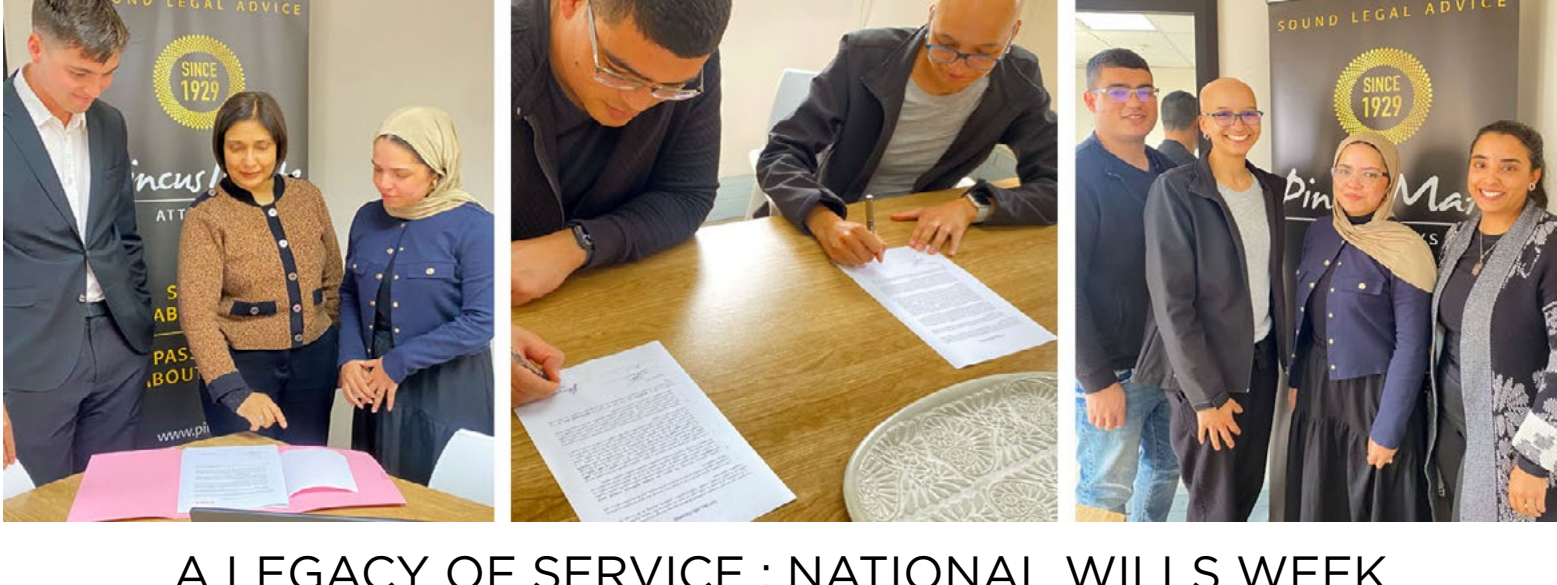

It's been a wonderful season at Pincus Matz, filled with moments of gratitude, connection, and community spirit. We invite you to take a glimpse at some of the activities that we have been involved in recently. Each story in this newsletter is a reminder of the people, purpose, and passion that make Pincus Matz such a special place to work and to serve our community.

"A team is not just a group of people – it's a group of people who trust each other." – Anon

BIRTHDAY BREAKFAST CLUB

Our latest Birthday Breakfast Club took place once again at the charming Chardonnay Deli in Constantia. This time, we enjoyed the sunshine in the garden, making the most of a beautiful, wind-free morning. It was a relaxed gathering filled with laughter, conversation, and plenty of coffee. As always, the company was the highlight.

A LEGACY OF SERVICE : NATIONAL WILLS WEEK

Pincus Matz was proud to participate in National Wills Week this September – an important initiative led by the Law Society of South Africa (LSSA). During the week, Yasmin Jadwat and Martine Murphy, supported by candidate attorneys Nicholas de Nobrega and Malikh Williams, volunteered their time to assist eligible members of the public in drafting basic Wills. This annual campaign provides an invaluable service at no cost, helping more South Africans secure essential legal protection for themselves and their families.

"Celebrating others brings light to our own journey." – Anon

NEDBANK CYBERCRIME PRESENTATION

Pincus Matz had the pleasure of hosting a fascinating presentation by Nedbank on the ever-growing threat of cybercrime in today's business landscape. The session offered an eye-opening look at the latest cyber threats, fraud tactics, and data-security risks facing organisations. It left us feeling a little more aware - and perhaps a little more cautious - but certainly better equipped with valuable insights into the digital risks that businesses, and indeed individuals, must navigate.

"Celebrating achievements, big or small, inspires us all to do more." – Anon

CELEBRATING OUR ADMINISTRATIVE PROFESSIONALS

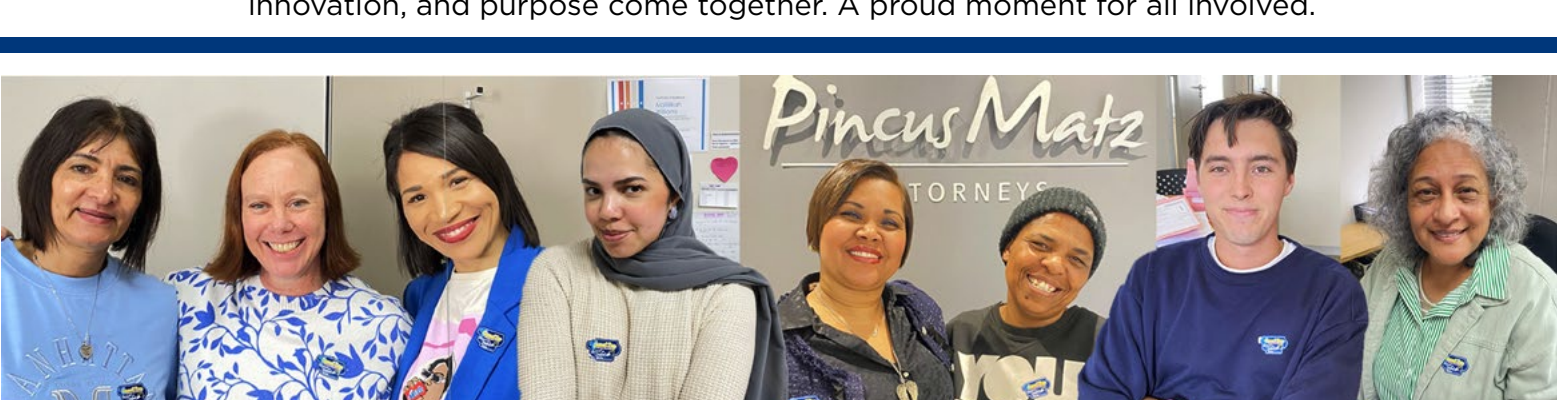

At Pincus Matz, we are deeply grateful for the dedicated team members who keep everything running smoothly. These are the people who know where everything is, ensure deadlines are met, and keep the firm moving with quiet precision. On the first Wednesday of September, we took a moment to honour our administrative professionals, the true MVPs of our team. Thank you for all that you do.

A NEW CHAPTER FOR CHILDREN'S HEALTHCARE

Alison Tooley and Brooklyn Pitcher had the honour of representing Pincus Matz at the official opening of the new Orthopaedic Unit at the Red Cross Children's Hospital. With advanced technology and a clear vision for compassionate care, the unit is a powerful example of what can be achieved when community, innovation, and purpose come together. A proud moment for all involved.

CASUAL DAY 2025 : BEYOND THE LABEL

On Friday, 5 September, the Pincus Matz team took part in Casual Day 2025, an initiative dedicated to promoting inclusion and celebrating diversity. This year's theme, "Beyond the Label," encouraged everyone to see people with disabilities as individuals defined by their potential, talents, and abilities – not by stereotypes.

The message reminds us to look beyond appearances and to value each person's unique contribution. We proudly wore blue and displayed our stickers in support of inclusion, dignity, and a more understanding society.

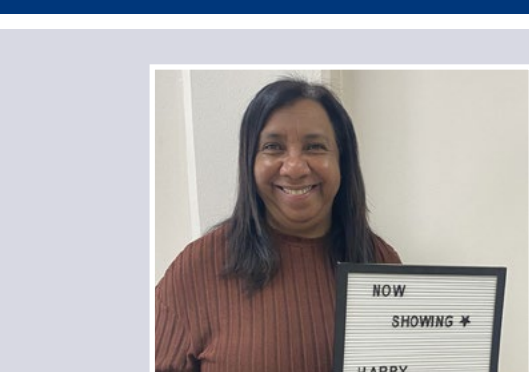

"Happiness is not something ready made. It comes from your own actions." – Dalai Lama

A PAUSE FOR A PICNIC

For our September staff lunch, we transformed our boardroom into a cosy indoor picnic space. With packed picnic baskets, and checkered blankets ready, we shared a spread of seasonal fruits, all served with a side of sunshine (and plenty of good conversation). When life gives you lemons, pack them for a picnic!

"The smallest act of kindness is worth more than the grandest intention." – Oscar Wilde

BIRTHDAY CHEERS ALL ROUND!

A very happy birthday to all our readers who celebrate their birthdays this season, and especially to Berenice Howes from our bookkeeping team! We hope your special day was filled with joy, laughter, and all your favourite things. Wishing you many more blessings and happiness in the year ahead.
