

Faces of Potential

We have a powerful potential in our youth, and we must have the courage to change old ideas and practices so that we may direct their power toward good ends.

POWERFUL POTENTIAL

As we celebrate our youth this month, we are reminded of the struggles that took place in 1976. At Pincus Matz we believe in investing in our youth and appoint candidate attorneys whom we mentor in their pursuit to become attorneys.

Mary Mcleod Bethune, educator, stateswoman, philanthropist, humanitarian, and civil rights activist, spoke of the powerful potential in our youth some 100 years ago. She encouraged us to 'direct their power toward good ends'.

'Good ends' is what we at Pincus Matz work towards — not only within our team — but also for every legal matter. It begins by recognising the powerful potential, identifying the best solution and directing our actions towards good results.

The foundation of every state is the education of its youth.

LONG SERVICE AWARDS

Three Pincus Matz staff members were recently acknowledged for their long term services. Abubakar Hendricks (aka Boebie) joined the firm 5 years ago as our messenger. Laverne Nolan has been a bookkeeper at Pincus Matz since 2006, while Melanie Wilson has been part of the family for 20 years.

We believe that long term service speaks volumes about internal relationships, and we encourage mutual respect and the common goal to serve our clients well.

PENGUINS PENGUINS EVERYWHERE ...

Les Masterson stopped to photograph these penguins when he enjoyed a little get-away at his Betty's Bay beach house. We have to consider that this could well be a case of the phenomenon known as frequency illusion (aka recency illusion and selective attention bias) since the introduction of the Pincus Penguin Project.

THE PINCUS MATZ PENGUIN PROJECT

Les Masterson and Martine Murphy are the latest recipients of the Penguin Award. They were picked by lucky draw, by our first awardee, Keegan Shaw.

We love Les for his charm, for being a gentleman, and for his words of wisdom and experience. We appreciate Martine for her enthusiasm, her friendly disposition and willingness to serve client's needs, and for being a team player.

NOT ALL HEROES WEAR CAPES

... but everyone at Pincus Matz wore slippers on Slipper Day held on 7 May 2021, in support of Reach for a Dream's most celebrated fundraiser.

Covid 19 had a devastating effect on the foundation last year as all dream activities had to be put on hold.

Face to Face with Pincus Matz family

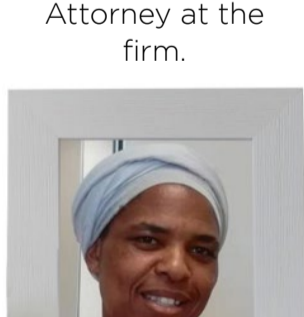

Chelcie Erasmus is a Candidate Attorney at the firm.

Laverne Nolan has been the dedicated bookkeeper at Pincus Matz for 15 years.

Les Masterson still consults, after retiring as senior partner at the firm.

Amanda Nduwayana a Messenger at the firm, celebrates her birthday on 31 May.

Rachenda Smith applies her experience and skills in Conveyancing.

Vanessa Joshua works in the Pincus Matz Bonds Department.

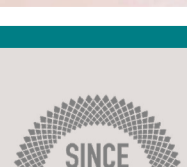

It is not possible for civilization to flow backward while there is youth in the world. Youth may be headstrong, but it will advance its allotted length.

Email Snippets

Absolutely love the new look and feel of Pincus Matz, and especially the Penguin Award. Please send my regards to all at the firm. And thank you for staying in touch. Mary Jane

I am looking for a firm of Attorneys who will be able to collect debt. I do like your website. Simple, clear yet detailed, with little fine print — unless it was too small for me to see. Kuhle Marrengane
