

SOMETHING WORTH CELEBRATING

Two years ago we put The Best Little Birthday Club in Town's get-togethers on hold, while we donned our masks and sanitized our hands. So we were delighted to be able to resume the celebrations and host another Birthday Club Breakfast in March.

The event was held at Homespun at The Andros in Claremont, where we thoroughly enjoyed connecting with some of our clients, friends and colleagues.

Visit our Facebook page to view more photos of the occasion.

NETWORKING, BUSINESS & PHILANTHROPY

How good it was to attend a face-to-face function again. As a member of the Adele Searll 100 Club, Pincus Matz partner Matina Angeliniadis and her guests attended the function at The Citadel, all in aid of University Bursary Fund & Community Charities. Renchia Droganis co-founder of Africology, shared some lessons learnt as a holistic healer. Our guest, Hilary pictured here engaging with Matina, won one of the many raffle prizes, which are all donated by various Adele Searll 100 Club members.

Relationship is everything. People are meant to be with people. We learn from them, then we grow.

WELCOME

Kelly-Lee Engelbrecht has joined the Pincus Matz family in the Bond Department. She has six 6 years experience in this field. In her spare time, Kelly-Lee enjoys hiking, binge watching Friends and Investigative docuseries, and spending time with her loved ones, partner Kyle, and son Cooper. They plan to extend their family soon by adopting a little fur baby, possibly named Bingo.

"I am so happy to have joined Pincus Matz. Thank you for the warm welcome and I look forward to getting to know you all." says Kelly-Lee.

A BUNDLE OF SUNSHINE HAS ARRIVED!

There was much excitement when Janet Snyman announced that a baby boy was on his way to join the family. Before Janet left on maternity leave, we held a baby shower at the office. As a special surprise, Pinky the penguin (our Staff Appreciation Floating Trophy) was presented to Janet. We wish mom and baby all the best, and we look forward to meeting baby Ian James, definitely the cutest member of the Pincus Matz family.

Sunshine is a welcome thing. It brings a lot of brightness. Jimmie Davis

FAREWELL

We said goodbye to Keegan Shaw at our staff luncheon at the end of April. Keegan joined Pincus Matz as Candidate Attorney in January 2020 and served his time with the firm in the litigation department. We will remember Keegan for his can-do attitude and as the first recipient of the Pincus Penguin Project.

We wish Keegan all the very best in his chosen career path.

SPOTLIGHT ON PROPERTY

The Property Practitioner Act 22 of 2019 came into effect on 1 February 2022. 'Property Practitioner' includes other related role players, inter alia: bridging financiers, property developers and property managers.

The Act states that Property Practitioners :

- may not accept a mandate without a disclosure form, disclosing all known defects on the property.
- may not encourage a consumer to use a particular service provider (including an attorney) to render any service of which that Property Practitioner was the effective cause.
- must be in possession of a Fidelity Fund Certificate, a Tax Clearance Certificate and BEE Certificate.

STAFF APPRECIATION PROGRAM

The Pincus Matz Penguin Awards

Alison Tooley and Vanessa Joshua were the recipients of the Pincus Matz Penguin Award in February. They are pictured here handing over the Pincus Matz Penguin Award to Karen Napoleon and Rachenda Smith. Congratulations!

HAPPY FEET

6 May 2022 was Slipper Day and a wonderful opportunity to treat our feet to cuddly comfort all in support of the Reach for a Dream Foundation. For 33 years, this organisation has fulfilled the dreams of children of any race, colour and creed between the ages of 3 and 18 faced with fighting life-threatening illnesses. This fund-raising event is one that we at Pincus Matz all love to support.

CELEBRATING THE BRIGHT SIDE AT THE OFFICE

Our 2022 theme of 'Looking on the Bright Side' has certainly brought an element of fun and joy to our monthly staff lunches. Table decor pops with colour, creative ideas have presented our meals, and outfits have included the brightest of brights. We really enjoy looking on the bright side!

Tucking into some colourful treats at our staff lunch, held in the boardroom.

Suitably dressed to brighten up the occasion.

BIRTHDAY WISHES

Congratulations to Alison Tooley and Melanie Wilson who celebrated their birthdays last month. Our best wishes also go to Laverne Nolan, Les Masterson and Amanda Ndwayana who celebrate their special days in May.
