YEARS OF SOUND LEGAL ADVICE

NEWSLETTER    SERIOUS ABOUT LAW | PASSIONATE ABOUT PEOPLE    NUMBER THREE | 2019

Walking the Talk for Women

Being serious about law and passionate about people also means that we enjoy sharing our legal expertise with others. We had the opportunity to do just that recently, when Matina Angeliniadis was invited to address the Community Health Workers at the SA Red Cross Association's Women's Day event. Pictured here are Marianne Nomdoe (Provincial Health and Care Manager Western Cape Red Cross Association), Cheryl Harper (We Can Change Our World) and Matina Angeliniadis.

Human behaviour flows from three main sources: desire, emotion, and knowledge.

High Tea to celebrate Ninety

The Greatest Little Birthday Club in Town has hosted two more 'Ninety-High Tea' birthday celebrations. Both The Cellars-Hohenort in Constantia and the Cape Grace Hotel on the V&A Waterfront delighted our guests with scrumptious treats. As a firm that is passionate about the relationships we have with our clients and colleagues, it is a real pleasure to enjoy time with them in beautiful and relaxed surroundings. More photos on Facebook.

Women's Day celebrations

August is the month we commemorate the achievements of South Africa's brave women. Alison Tooley and Matina Angeliniadis were invited to attend the Nedbank Phenomenal Women function.

Kirsten Smit from Citadel invited Matina Angeliniadis to the Rugby's Caring Hands Women's Day Breakfast hosted by the Chris Burger Petro Jackson Players Fund, at the Kelvin Grove Bowls Club House. The Fund aims to make rugby safer, and to prevent injuries.

Farewell

We bid farewell to Melissa Hans who joined Pincus Matz in 2003 as a Litigation Assistant. She studied law through UNISA, graduated with an LLB in 2016, and went on to complete her articles at the firm. Melissa is a mother to Zoë. She is a fine example of a dedicated woman who can balance work, home and studies. We wish her all the best in her endeavours.

Nine decades

This year the Pincus Matz staff lunches follow the theme Nine Decades. These have brought some delightful fun into the work environment. Even the drinks are carefully selected to suit the occasion. Matina and Faiza organised a 70s lunch and served bottled Coca-Cola, while the 20s theme saw our ladies dressed in feathered boas and beads while sipping delicious and colourful mocktails. Find more photos on Facebook.

Happy Birthday

Our very best wishes go to Abubakar 'Boebie' Hendricks, Martine Murphy, Abaseyah 'Abby' Bassadien and Nuha Jacobs who recently celebrated their birthdays.

I danced with passion to spite the music.
