Secretaries and Bosses

We recently thanked the support team of the Pincus Matz family for the things they do to make our firm operate smoothly. In appreciation of the work they do, we took some time out to enjoy some tasty treats with them.

A few weeks later, on National Bosses Day, the four Pincus Matz partners, Yasmin Jadwat, Les Masterson, Alison Tooley and Matina Angeliniadis, were honoured by the staff for the roles they play in keeping the business on track. We are proud of our team!

Staff matters

We wish Colleen King all the best in her retirement. Colleen worked in the Pincus Matz Property Department for nine years. Colleen, you will be missed! Welcome to three new faces to our team: Lamese Essa, Yvonne Khumalo and Caryn Avenant who have joined the firm. We trust that their time with Pincus Matz will be happy and productive.

Herschel Golf Day

The Pincus Matz banner was proudly displayed at the Herschel Golf Day held on 30 October at the Royal Cape Golf Club.

Well done to Warren Castelyn, Pincus Matz attorney, who represented our firm at the event - together with invited guests.

The greatest little birthday club in town does it again!

We enjoyed a delightful breakfast with our September birthday guests at The Cellars-Hohenort in Constantia. The guests who celebrated their birthdays in October, joined us at the Open Door Restaurant at Constantia Uitsig. What a lovely opportunity to keep in touch in a relaxed environment.

Pincus Matz takes part in The Cape Law Society's Wills Week

Our thanks go to Yasmin Jadwat and Karen Napoleon who represented Pincus Matz in this initiative.

Pincus Matz Attorneys participated in the recent Wills Weeks. From 14 to 18 September 2015 we assisted indigents to obtain a basic will, free of charge, according to the requirements as laid out by The Cape Law Society, inter alia:

- Basic wills were drawn up free of charge.
- We explained the importance of having a properly and professionally drafted will to the client.
- Clients received a copy of his/her will.

We are pleased to have been able to assist with this uplifting task.

World Cup fever hits home!

October was rugby month, so it is no wonder that our staff lunch was themed in green and gold, in support of our Bokke. Well done to the organisers of our lunch, and well done to our rugby team!

I wanted to once again extend my heartfelt thanks to you for so seamlessly dealing with the sale of my house. It has been a truly stress free process for me, especially being far away in London that has made such a difference for me. If I am ever in the position to recommend attorneys, I will gladly be providing your details. Michelle Steyn

I would like to extend a heartfelt thank you for taking the time out of your extremely busy schedule, to come in and say goodbye to me. It is really appreciated, and thank you kindly for the wonderful gift! It is customers like you, which make saying goodbye difficult. Thank you for being the awesome customers you are, and I hope that the relationship with FNB Plumstead continues long after I have departed. Steven Behrens
