

THE PARTNERS OF PINCUS MATZ

The partners and staff of Pincus Matz consider themselves to be a family with a healthy balance between traditional values on the one hand and current technology and professional expertise on the other. With four partners the firm is big enough to handle most legal problems and, at the same time, small enough to deliver a personalised service.

Les Masterson

B.Com LL.B (UCT)

Commercial Law and Litigation

- Joined the firm in 1975
- Recipient of Cape Law Society Award 2016, in recognition of his Lifetime Contribution to the Profession.

PROFESSIONAL ATTRIBUTES

- Skilled negotiator and drafter
- Determined yet patient
- Fair, ethical and above reproach

EXPERTISE

Les is an experienced attorney in general litigation, commercial and property affairs. He has an excellent grasp of constantly changing laws and has seen Pincus Matz evolve into a dynamic, modern firm where attention to detail is critical to the process. Les is the Convenor of the Attorneys' Admission Examination Panel of the Law Society as well as an examiner for over 20 years.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

'People need a gatekeeper and an intermediary and I believe that our firm provides that. Honesty and integrity in the way we practice law are vital. At Pincus Matz, our focus is more on delivering excellent service, rather than on high fees. We aim to charge a fair price, to make the experience as pleasant as possible, to really help people and to see them return. We pride ourselves in being honest, efficient and effective and make sure that the people we employ have the same values and lots of empathy'

Alison Tooley

BA LLB CFP®

Property Law

- Joined the firm in 1998

PROFESSIONAL ATTRIBUTES

- Outcome focused
- Problem solver
- Honest and ethical

EXPERTISE

Alison is a Conveyancer and a Certified Financial Planner.

She specialises in the financial aspects of property transactions, and is an expert on tax matters. She also has more than ten years' experience in drafting wills and planning estates and offers an expert legal and financial structure to our clients' property matters.

Alison is an examiner on the Attorneys' admission examination panel of the Law Society.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

'My big-picture approach not only allows me to offer my clients sound financial advice for an immediate solution, but also to advise for the long-term, while keeping an eye on all stakeholders' agendas. I feel that is vital in such a highly regulated field. My job is to discern between what is legally and ethically possible, and what is not. We aim to register every transaction promptly, within ethical and legal bounds.'

Matina Angeliniadis

B.A LL.B (Wits)

Business Development and Practice Manager

- Joined the firm in 2000

PROFESSIONAL ATTRIBUTES

- Empathetic
- Strategic thinker and planner
- Relationship builder

EXPERTISE

Admitted as an attorney, conveyancer and notary, Matina also manages the firm's marketing and client services activities.

She is a specialist in developing, planning and implementing business and marketing strategies.

Matina keeps abreast of current trends in business and organisational structures by attending, and hosting, workshops and events.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

'My job is not merely to connect with clients but to build internal relationships and structures as well. I'm the glue that keeps all the parts of the business together - creating a collective from different, yet individually vital cells. I present opportunities for staff to interact with one another. I believe this improves the atmosphere and morale, as well as builds trust. Trust leads to openness and that in turn leads to a well functioning firm.'
